Sheriff's Office Donates Proceeds from 2012 Golf Tournament to Klondike Elementary School

Sheriff Bill Oldham and the Shelby County Sheriff's Office made a check donation to Klondike Elementary School from monies raised at our annual golf tournament. The charity event took place May 11th at the Edmund Orgill Golf Course in Millington.

"For the past several years, the Sheriff's Office has supported our adopted school, Klondike Elementary in North Memphis. We would like to thank all those who participated. It is our goal to continue to support student programs and make a real difference in the lives of students," said Shelby County Sheriff Bill Oldham.

The presentation was made Wednesday, October 10th in the school auditorium located at 1250 Vollentine Avenue. Last year, the Sheriff's Office presented the school a check in the amount of $8,000 dollars. This year, the Sheriff's Office gave the school a check in the amount of $8500.00 dollars.
